About So Joe

This book is about So Joe and how they can help me.

Some words in this agreement are in green. I can find out what these words mean at the back.

What do these words mean?

NDIS	It is the short form of 'National Disability Insurance Scheme'. It is a government funded program to support people with a disability.
NDIS plan	This is a person's plan which has been put together by the NDIS to help achieve a participant's goals. It also says the types of supports I need and how much funding is available for these supports. Plans are usually 1-2 years in duration.
Plan Management	A person who processes your NDIS finances and pays your providers from the funding in your plan.
supports	Services, activities or resources in the NDIS Plan.
Support Coordination	A provider who is able to assist in coordinating a NDIS participants supports.

Why do people choose So Joe?

They are friendly and amazing at helping people get great supports.

The So Joe team all have family or people close to them with a disability.

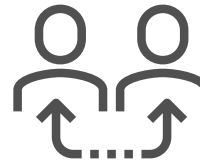

The So Joe team is good at being free to talk to me when I have questions. If I send So Joe an email, they will send one back soon.

So Joe likes to come up with great ways to help me. People at So Joe have won awards for coming up with clever ideas to help people with disabilities.

So Joe is here to help me get great supports.

So Joe will make it easy for me.

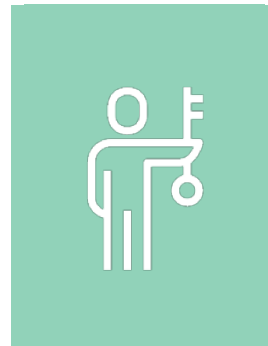

So Joe will help me do the things I want.

So Joe will be friendly.

Things So Joe can help me with

1. My Plan My Way

This is a free service.

They will help me understand my NDIS plan.

2. My Funds My Way

The NDIS call this Plan Management.

So Joe can help me with my NDIS money if this is in my NDIS plan.
